The Edinburgh Art Festival has been brought about by a strong conviction that the visual arts should take a prominent place alongside all the other festivals happening in Edinburgh over the summer. From the National Galleries of Scotland to artist-led spaces, EAF celebrates the rich diversity of the city's art organisations. This map presents 34 venues across Edinburgh whose imaginative and innovative exhibitions and projects collectively make up this year's programme.

The Edinburgh Art Festival is supported by the Scottish Arts Council, The British Council and the City of Edinburgh Council. This map has been made possible by the generous sponsorship of Bank of Scotland, Scotland on Sunday, The Art Newspaper, J Thomson Colour Printers and Map Magazine.
